

EUCLID Conference 2002

Dates: Wednesday 16 - Friday 18 October 2002

Location: TEI, Thessaloniki, Greece

Title : Restructuring and adapting to European standards: overcoming regional variations in needs and interests in education for LIS)

Theme(s):

- experiences in adapting to the Bologna agreement in defining and structuring Bachelors and Masters degrees
- issues in implementing the European Credit Transfer scheme (e.g. comparability in assessment)
- experiences of accreditation and quality assurance systems
- experiences of collaborative course development
- developing competencies, critical analysis and personal transferable skills in future information professionals
- strategies for coping with rapid change (curricular development, staff development, resources development)
- distance learning: potential and challenges
- developing research skills

Provisional programme :

Wednesday 16th October	1600	Registration Venidou Conference Centre ADDRESS?
	1700	Official Opening by the President of TEI Athens, etc. Welcome by the Head of Department – M.M-C The current situation in Greek Library Science Education Daphne Kyriaki-Manessis, Ionian University (Greece)	Chair IMJ
	1800	RECEPTION
Thursday 17th October	0845	Pick up at hotels	Transfer to T.E.I.
	0915	Implementing the Bologna agreement Speaker from the European Commission (t.b.c.)	Chair - IMJ
	1000	Approaches to quality assurance and accreditation of LIS programmes Experiences from Estonia and United Kingdom R. J. Hartley (U.K.) and Sirje Virkus (Estonia) Experiences from Poland Bronislawa Wozniczka-Paruzel and Malgorzata Kisilowska	Chair - IMJ
	1100	COFFEE
	1130	The profession and the discipline – complete or	Chair GvdM

		fragmented? The complete librarian – an outdated species? Ragnar Audunson, Ragnar Nordlie and Inger Cathrine Spangen (Norway) Fragmentation of LIS curriculum: is it permanent or transient? Aleksandra Horvat (Croatia) The implementation of the European Credit Transfer system as a curriculum evaluation tool. Constanța Espelt (Spain)
	1300	LUNCH
	1400	Curricular challenges Developing research skills as an essential knowledge of the profession Juznic P. Urbanija J (Slovenia) Bridging gaps - pedagogical investment Tove Pemmer Sætre, and Elisabeth Tallaksen Rafste (Norway)	Chair - RA
	1515	COFFEE
	1545	Concepts and reality of Greek library management education. Stella Korobili-Xantinidou, Mersini Moreleli-Cacouris, and Irene Tilikidou (Greece) LIS education – repackaging infopreneurs or promoting value-based skills? Robert W.Vaagan (Norway)	Chair - GvdM
	1700	DIALOG's support for LIS education. Liz Blankson-Hemans (U.K.)	Chair - IMJ
	1800	Return to hotels
Friday 18th October	0830	Pick up at hotels	Transfer to T.E.I.
	0915	Quo vadis Germany? A report on the status of the international degrees and credit point systems in Germany. Ute Krauss-Leichert (Germany)	Chair – RA
	1000	International collaboration Cross-country partnerships in European and global Library & Information Science (LIS) education at the crossroads Leif Kajberg (Denmark) The international Master in Information Studies by distance: strengths and issues in implementing a collaborative inter-university course	Chair – IJ

		Pat Dixon (U.K.) and Anna Maria Tammaro (Italy)
	1100	COFFEE
	1130	National experiences Bologna, The Netherlands, and Information Science. Albert Boekhorst and John Mackenzie Owen (Netherlands) Course selectiveness as the means of democratisation of education R.S.Motulsky and N.V.Olyanyuk (Belorus) Factors affecting curricular change in the digital LIS environment George Bokos (Greece) Restructuring LIS education in Belgrade University to European standards Alexandra Vranes (Yugoslavia)	Chair – GvdM
	1300	LUNCH
	1400	Library and Information Studies in Malta: challenges and opportunities Martes Paris (Malta) Library Education in a distributed library laboratory Niels Windfeld Lund (Norway)	Chair – RA
	1500	COFFEE
	1530	A competent profession? Developing competencies, critical analysis and personal transferable skills in future information professionals Linda Ashcroft (U.K.) The challenge of developing a competence-oriented curriculum Marijke Roggema-van Heusden (Netherlands)	Chair – GvdM
	1630	Summing up Ian Johnson (U.K.) Closure of the Conference	Chair – IJ
	1645	EUCLID Council	Chair – IJ
	1730	Return to hotels
	Evening	CONFERENCE DINNER	